Secretarys Report

The seventh reunion of the Peters High School. was held in the Lower Town Hall on Wednesday evening January 2nd 1889.

About one hundred and twenty sat down to the tables to enjoy the good things for the inner man. The ladies were wide awake to make this part of the occasion very attractive. At intervals during the time of supper. Brigham's Orchestra rendered choice selections of music.

Immediately following the supper a business meeting was held with the President in the chair. The report of the secretary was read and accepted.

the election of officers was held with the following result.

President

D. C. Nichols

Vice President.

W. R. Winchester.

Secretary and Treasurer. - H. A. McMaster.

It was voted that the President have power to appoint the Committee of Arrangements for the next re-union.

Speech making was next in order. the President calling upon one of the first pupils of the school. Hon. Edward Burnett, who in his pleasant way gave a short sketch of Life in Washington, as a member of Congress, he also expressed his disappointment at seeing so few of the earlier members of the school present.

An interesting copy of the old school paper, "The Harbinger" was read by Mrs. Alice Burton and Mrs. Ella Gibson.

The next to respond to his name was S. F. Blodgett, Supt. of the Milford schools, who referred to his pleasant association with the school, and in closing, recommended that every ^{graduating} class ~~be~~ some ornament for the old school room.

Mr. J. W. Horne, the present principal of the school, was the next called, and spoke very highly of his predecessor, Mr. Blodgett, who left the school in such a prosperous condition, thus making the way so much easier for him to continue the work.

At the close of these remarks, those who desired adjourned to the upper hall and danced to the music of Brighams orchestra.

Southboro. Jan. 6th 1893.

The eighth reunion of the Peters High School Association, was held in the Town Hall, Friday evening Jan. 6th 1893, a heavy snow storm prevailed during the greater part of the day, but as night came on the clouds gave way to a good moon, so that about 125 were present. The first part of the evening was spent in the upper Hall, in greetings and social talk.

About nine o'clock the procession was formed and the march ended at the supper tables in the lower room, after the collation was well cared for, the meeting was called to order by Pres. D. C. Nichols.

The reports of the Secty and Treas. were read and accepted, after a number of unsuccessful nominations to get a President, it was voted, "That the chair appoint a committee of three to retire and bring in nominations for the various offices to be filled, the chair appointed Mrs. Billings, Miss Lucy N. Fisher and Rev. Lewis G. Wilson, who brought in the following report which was accepted and adopted by the association.

For President. S. F. Blodgett.

" Vice " Oren P. Walker.

" Secretary, Miss Francis E. Buck.

" Treasurer, H. A. McMaster.

Speech making being in order, the chair called upon, Supr. of Schools in Milford - S. F. Blodgett, who said he felt a great deal embarrassed, seeing so many which he had seen before under different circumstances, he referred very tenderly to the old times in Southboro, also telling some pleasant reminiscences, and stories which might keep his hearers with a broad face.

Mrs. W. C. Simpson read an old composition, from the school when she was a member, describing the family of twenty nine children, in several instances giving two or three the same name, and a happy family it was, - thus referring,

to the school at that time.

Rev. Lewis G. Wilson followed, letting the experience of one of his schoolmates. in his first attempt at oratory - (with feet at right-angle, right-hand uplifted), commencing - "Ye crags and peaks, I'm with you once again," the audience was kept in a laughing mood until the speaker sat down.

Letters were read from Rev. Geo. H. Johnson of Lowell, - Geo. H. Winchmore of Beloit Wis. and R. E. Benfield, Duluth, Minn.

The after supper talk being over, all were invited to the upper hall, to enjoy the light fantastic step with Gibsons orchestra, thus closed one of the most pleasant reunions the association has ever held.
